Evaluation:

Accommodation – The Alfanar Palace Hotel was accessible for the wheelchairs. The level of the accommodation was good. The participants lived there in the double and single rooms.

Meals - Food in hotel was in general good, except more fruits would be better. The service there was not so good. Lunch in venue was arranged good and participants stayed in the outside tent for lunch.

Transport - The transport officer Ahmad Hyasat was the experienced member of Organizing Committee and he organized it very well.

Sport equipment -	Very good, ITTF approved for all of our classes.
Information -	Time schedule and draw were on the information board .
Referee -	Cindy Leung ( HKG ) was very experienced referee, Matches were conducted following the time schedule, though the referee team had some problems with Dr. Wu programme. Her cooperation with the Deputy referees, and Umpires was good.
Umpires -	Except 1 umpire from Egypt all other umpires were from Jordan, and they worked very well. Good team.
Call area -	Call area was next to the playing hall. The two Deputy referees organized well the all of needed activities including the line up for march-in in the first round of competition in the morning every day.
Computer Man -	Ammar Algadi was hard working and cooperated well with the Referee.
Ball persons -	They all came as individuals, on the spot supervision was needed.
Organization -	The whole organization of the tournament was from the Al Watani Club and was therefore quite professional in the organization. They wanted to take this event as a test for the following Asian Regional Championships..

Conclusion :

We would like to congratulate all members of the local Organizing Committee, their volunteers, the ball persons and moreover all of the other officials and umpires who had proven to lead all of the events without much problems.
